We are authorized to announce G. O. DOZIER a candidate for Corner, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

SENATOR HAWLEY is being urged for Secretary of War.

The Hon. James Hamon, of Scott county, has announced his candidacy for Representative.

CONGRESSMAN BERRY has introduced a bill to give Carrollton a $35,000 post-office building.

The date of the Confederate reunion at Nashville, Tenn., has been changed to June 22, 23 and 24th.

An Indianapolis editor will have to serve a sentence in prison for sending obscene matter through the mails, and a Chicago editor is a similar sufferer.

A PETITION is being circulated at Versailles, asking Governor Bradley to pardon Dr. Walker Davis, who has served twelve years of a life sentence for the alleged poisoning of his father-in-law.

JAMES A. VIOLETTE is a sweet-scented geranium. He was too good last winter to vote for Blackburn for the U. S. Senate, but was too good to accept a nomination for County Judge on the Republican ticket in Franklin. But he is not the onliest one. There are others.—Interior Journal.

CLEVELAND wrote to the Jackson day celebrators that "Democracy is not disorder." Of course not. No one but a fool would say so. Democracy is decency and stands for the constitution and good government.

The President is mighty late in finding out that he is "in." He still claims to be a member of the Democratic party.—Interior Journal.

The Semi-Weekly Interior Journal from heading to foot slugs has a bran new dress of type, which to even the unpracticed eye looks as sharp and clean as the indentations of a graver's tool.

The State papers gracefully yield the Journal its front rank in Kentucky journalism, instinctively turn to it for inspiration in their work, and with praises of this wide-awake and fearless sheet.

"It is better to tell your mother now, boys; than to untie your tears and force flowers out of season with which to bedew and bedevil her grave."

Mr. Walton's brethren of the press pay him now the tribute which he so enterprise deserves, his manhood merits; consequently in life he enjoys what in death would be state and unapproachable.

PERSONAL.

HON. J. B. McCREARY's eulogy of Speaker Crisp was a touching tribute to the dead statesman.

It is authoritatively denied that the United States and Spain have concluded an agreement regarding terms to be offered the insurgents for the settlement of the rebellion.

When Albert S. Willis, minister to Honolulu, died, Kentucky lost a patriotic statesman and should mourn that she was not permitted to retrieve the error committed when his district turned him down politically some years ago. He was probably the best Congressman Louisville ever had.

The Republican press, so fond of howling every time any disturbance occurred in the management of public affairs by the Democrats, should now turn their attention to the Hopkinsville Insane Asylum and the management of the Eddyville branch penitentiary. There they will find alleged incompetency and unfaithfulness to public duty by Republicans.

The Winchester Star, which comes to us every week freighted with good news items, changed hands last week, Mr. James R. Broadhurst retiring. Given an opportunity to express his gratitude for favors extended him by the paper's patrons, Mr. Broadhurst most gracefully speaks the well wishes of the people for his successors, Messrs. W. T. and J. J. Adams, and C. C. Madden. The latter with equal courtesy express the hope that the retiring proprietor will achieve in his business ventures the success which his irreproachable character, worth and ability merit.

It is more matter of conjecture what the policy of the incoming administration will be, but it is semi-officially given out that McKinley intends to subordinate everything to the passage of a high protective tariff bill, having, it is said, determined to hold up appointments if necessary to carry it.

"And yet," says the Stanford Interior Journal, "so-called Democrats helped to elect this man to the presidency! Was there ever such a travesty in politics? Pity that they alone could suffer the consequences of their act, but unfortunately this is not the case. The whole country must suffer because of their traitorous action."

In his speech at the banquet tendered Editor Roberts, Chairman of the Republican Campaign Committee, at the Louisville Hotel, last Thursday, Mr. Roberts characterized the coming money Democrats who voted against Bryan, as "the flower of the party." But sir, as it was the root, the trunk, and the branches of Democracy that refused to vote for McKinley or Palmer, it is little to the liking of the 218,000 unfettered Democrats who have so long kept in office many of these "flowers of the party" that they should be now repudiated, in local contests at least, by the local contests at least, by the local contests at least.

Dr. G. W. Evans and Mr. J. H. Kennedy are authorized to sell stock in the new Democratic Daily to be started in Louisville in the near future. Gen. P. Watt Hardin is canvassing the State in his behalf, and received much encouragement in this county, where, as elsewhere in the State, there is a pronounced demand for an organ other than the Courier-Journal to voice their sentiments and give expression to their demands. All who are interested should send in their subscriptions to Dr. Evans or Mr. J. H. Kennedy. Once started the paper will be an everlasting success, as it will have in immense constituency to draw from.

MONEY UP: MEN DOWN.

The Illinois Steel Company, the largest corporation of its kind in the world and the heaviest employer of labor in the State of Illinois, has served notice upon its employees that all wages will be reduced February 1, says the New York Journal.

Three months ago the officials of the same company were assuring its workmen of uninterrupted work and the maintenance of wages if McKinley could only be elected.

Probably in three months more the spokesmen of the same corporation will be telling the Ways and Means committee of the House of Representatives that an increase in the tariff on steel rails and structural steel is absolutely necessary that the dignity of American labor may be maintained and the workmen's wages remain at that high point at which it is, of course, the dearest wish of his employers to keep them.

We wonder if by that time—or if ever—the people will learn what estimate to put upon threats or promises made by millionaire corporations for the furtherance of political or mercenary ends.—Harrodsburg Sayings.
